

Having a vehicle written-off can become very costly if you're not properly covered. Write-Off Protection will pay up to $30,000 to assist in the event of a Write-Off.

Outstanding Loan Balance: Covers the difference between your loan balance and the settlement amount you receive from your truck insurer.

Deductibles: With deductibles on the rise, it's important to have coverage to pay off your deductible in the event of a write-off.

Downpayment: Don't lose the money you put down to purchase your new vehicle. This product provides you with money to put towards a downpayment on a new vehicle.
